

NEW in the LIBRARY -- December 2020

Less time spent shopping, wrapping gifts, caroling, attending concerts, going to parties, preparing the house for guests this month equals MORE TIME TO READ! ☞ Check out the following books, located this month on the cart in the Gamble Room. Come January, they will be shelved in their normal locations: fiction in the Fireplace Room; non-fiction on Gamble Room shelves. Rachel Lausch

FICTION

- Brown, Dan Origin – architecture, science, and unexpected happenings
- Kelly, Martha Hall Lost Roses – 3 Women, St Petersburg to Paris, shadow of WWI
- Leon, Donna The Waters of Eternal Youth – a canal death in Venice
- Moyes, Jojo The Giver of Stars – 5 women deliver books in 1930's America
- Robinson, Marilynne Jack – interracial romance between children of ministers
- Shaara, Jeff To Wake the Giant – Pearl Harbor historical fiction

NON-FICTION

200 RELIGION

- Clemo, Jack The Invading Gospel – journey from self-involvement to the joy of Christian fellowship
- Jimenez, Mary Carmen Our Father, Who Art in Heaven – prayer resource

300 SOCIAL SCIENCES

- McCullough, David Say Please, Say Thank You: The Respect We Owe One Another – civility and community
- Menand, Louis The Metaphysical Club: A Story of Ideas in America – examines American events between the Civil War and the end of WWI
- Weale, Albert The Will of the People: A Modern Myth – a critique of populism and democratic politics

900 HISTORY & GEOGRAPHY

- Phillips, David The Day Niagara Falls Ran Dry! – Canadian weather facts and trivia; quite fun!

920 BIOGRAPHY & MEMOIR:

- Callahan, Patti Becoming Mrs. Lewis – friendship and love between Joy Davidman and C. S. Lewis
- Linn, James Weber Jane Addams: A Biography – founder of Hull House, supporter of social causes, winner of 1931 Nobel Peace Prize